

Dear parents and carers,

It's certainly been quite the week in school!

You will be aware that Salhouse received an inspection by Ofsted on Tuesday and Wednesday. I would like to thank all parents and families who took the time to respond to the Ofsted survey, who talked with Inspectors and who have spoken with such kindness and understanding to school staff this week. Your genuine interest and concern for wellbeing has been really valued at all levels.

The children too conducted themselves very well, with the Lead Inspector noting pupils' manners and confidence across the school.

Whilst we may not receive the final report from Ofsted for some time, I would like to reassure you that when this is finally publicised it will be in full and impartial.

With my thanks and best wishes,
Mr Will Emmens, Head of School

Football Free Fridays

To allow children of all ages the opportunity to make use of outdoor spaces in a variety of ways as they socialise and play, Fridays will now be 'Football Free' – this will cover both break and lunchtimes. Children will have access to our wonderful gym trail equipment, the woodland area, field and playground as usual. We ask for your support in speaking to your children about this and managing their feelings, however passionate.

FOSS Christmas Fair

Thank you from FOSS

Thank you to all the parents who completed the FOSS Parent Survey. They have collated the results and will be discussing them at the next meeting.

Thank you to all the parents who expressed an interest in joining FOSS or volunteering, you will be added to the WhatsApp group.
